

FOR ASSOCIATIONS & CONFERENCES

What if your members played their way through your next session?

Serious skills. Ridiculously fun delivery.

Meet the Emotional Endurance Carnival: a traveling, neuroscience-backed experience that turns the science of emotional endurance into something your members can actually play with.

Step right up to a better life.

Across 30+ interactive booths, attendees step into the Activation Point to practice the split second between what happens and how they respond.

Part carnival. Part science. Completely unforgettable.

“Very inviting. Very interactive and so fun!” A.A.

The science is serious. The experience is fun.

Grounded in neuroscience and validated therapeutic approaches, the Carnival gives members practical skills for:

- ✓ Navigating stress with intention
- ✓ Staying steady through change
- ✓ Communicating better under pressure
- ✓ Bringing new skills back to their teams

COPE365

The Carnival is just the beginning.

Every attendee gets a full year of COPE365, so the skills they learned at the Carnival become habits that last.

Make your next event the one members talk about.

Bring the Carnival to your next conference, convention, or member gathering.
